

Celebrating the 25th Anniversary of the Sainsbury Wing

Sainsbury Wing Lecture Theatre
National Gallery, London
Friday 14 October

Welcome and introduction

10.15am Gabriele Finaldi and Lord Sainsbury of Preston Candover KG

Building

10.30am Giles Waterfield, TACT OR IMPACT: The Sainsbury Wing and the architecture of museum additions

Display (at the National Gallery)

11.00am Susan Foister, The inaugural Sainsbury Wing displays

11.30am Break

12.00am Luke Syson, The Paragone in the Sainsbury Wing: Pictorial relief in Quattrocento painting and sculpture

12.30pm Mary Hersov, Exhibitions in the Sainsbury Wing: Tradition and innovation

1.00pm Questions

1.15pm Lunch

Display (outside the National Gallery)

2.15pm Peta Motture, Interconnecting ideas: the thinking behind the Medieval & Renaissance Galleries at the Victoria and Albert Museum

2.45pm Neville Rowley, Painting and sculpture in the Berlin Museum: a constant dialogue

3.15pm Questions

3.30pm Tea

The Renaissance beyond the Sainsbury Wing

4.00pm Caroline Campbell, The Wider Renaissance

4.30pm Alison Wright, Perspectives, processions and presences: The Sainsbury Wing in the teaching of Renaissance Art

5.00pm Questions

5.15pm Neil MacGregor, Conclusion