National Gallery Board of Trustees

1 April 2024 to 31 March 2025

Name: David Marks

Position: Trustee

Date of Appointment: 13 March 2017

Please complete the following form to reflect your own interests and, where appropriate, a member of your immediate family, connected persons or some other close personal connection and those of which you are aware for close family members or those living in the same household. Individuals viewed as close family members or living in the same household are listed below:

Name	Relationship to you
Rebecca Marks; she was the co-producer of a Taschen book on the Gallery that was published in 2024. She is also a trustee of a Foundation who are occasional supporters of the Gallery.	Wife

1. Employment remunerated trade, profession, public office or consultancy, and any previous employment in which you continue to have a financial interest.

CEO and Co-Founder of Brockton Everlast

2. Directorships of companies, both British & Foreign, public and private, and Partnerships, whether remunerated or unremunerated.

I am director of around 25-30 companies which own individual, commercial properties in London, Cambridge and Oxford, and/ or provide consultancy services to those asset-owning companies. The exact number of these companies can fluctuate throughout the year depending on asset disposals or new acquisitions. These individual company names have been provided to the Secretary of the Gallery. None of these properties have any direct proximity nor relevance to the National Gallery's estate.

4. Shareholding Names of companies and organisations in which a Trustee or their family or associates has a controlling interest (defined as holdings of one fifth or more of the share capital or control of one fifth or more of the votes).

Brockton Real Estate Capital LLP (dormant, non-trading LLP)

Brockton Partners LLP (dormant, non-trading LLP)

I am a limited partner in various English, Scottish and Guernsey limited partnerships and own more than one fifth in many cases but these are non-trading investment partnerships.

5. All non-pecuniary interests, transactions and activities (such as loans to the collection) that relate or might relate to the Gallery

Brockton Everlast has a long-standing business relationship with CBRE which provides Facilities Management services to the Gallery.

In relation to current or future building development projects at the Gallery it is likely that architects, contractors and professionals involved could have a historic or current business relationship with Brockton Capital or Brockton Everlast. I will deal with potential and perceived conflicts by declaring them at the appropriate time.

Brockton Everlast Inc. Limited and funds raised by Brockton Capital LLP are advised from time to time on Construction matters by DAC Beachcroft, who also advise the Gallery on Construction matters relating to the Accommodation Hub project and the NG200 Capital project.

6. Gifts of Hospitality Details of any gifts, hospitality, sponsorship, and donations offered to you by external bodies and whether this was declined or accepted, including the name and role of the offeror and the date of the offer.

7. Trustees are advised to declare anything else that a member of the public, knowing the facts, might reasonably think is significant and relevant or perceive as a conflict of interest

Details of any issue which has led to a declaration of conflict or potential conflict of interest arising from discussion in a meeting or which has arisen outside of a meeting.

I pledged a financial contribution to the NG200 project, which was made in 2024. In my capacity as Chair of the Masterplan Committee as well as Chair of the NGTF (which owns St Vincent House) I am involved in either putting together professional design
