Provenance:

Endres and Ursula Dürer, Nuremberg; Antoine Perrenot de Granvelle [1517–1586], Antwerp and Madrid (?); 1589–1809 Imperial collectios, Prague and Vienna; Antoine-François Andréossy [1761–1828], Paris and Montauban [1]; Thomas Lawrence [1769–1830], London; Jean François Gigoux [1806-1894], Paris; Baron Etienne Edmond Martin de Beurnonville [1825-1906], Paris; Henry Oppenheimer [1859-1932], London, and purchased by Frits Lugt at his sale, Christie's, London, 10 July 1936, no. 367, for Franz Koenigs [1881-1941], Haarlem (1); by descent to Koenigs' children (possibly 'Dutch private collection' listed by Friedrich Winkler in 1939); purchased at Sotheby's, London, 26 June 1969, lot 71 (2).

(1) The drawing was acquired after 1931, when Koenigs lent his collection of drawings to the Museum Boijmans. It is therefore not listed in the catalogue of 281 German drawings before 1800 (1931) (<https://www.koenigs.nl/documenten/rkd/Catalogus-D1.pdf>), it is part of the second Koenigs' collection, which passed after Koenig's death to his five children.

(2) Albert J. Elen lists this Sotheby's auction as one of the sales associated with the Koenigs Collection, but does not list lot 71, only lots 69, 77 and 81. It is unclear whether X10595 had already been sold by the heirs already at an earlier auction and 1969 was a second sale, or whether Elen forgot to mention lot 71 as a further example of the Koenig sales. Elen 1989, p. 13 n.13.

Provenance:

Probably a member of the Haller family, Nuremberg. Possibly Paul von Praun [d. 1616] and descendants, Nuremberg, until at least 1778. Charles à Court Repington [d. 1925], Amington Hall, Warwickshire; sold to Mrs. Phyllis Loder, London (sale, Christie, Manson & Woods, London, 29 April 1932, no. 51, as by Bellini); [1] Baron Heinrich Thyssen Bornemisza, Villa Favorita, Lugano, by 1934; (Pinakos, Inc. [Rudolf Heinemann], on consignment to M. Knoedler & Co., New York, 1950); purchased 1950 by the Samuel H. Kress Foundation, New York.

[1] John Oliver Hand suggests that the panel may have been with Vaz Dias and the dealer Bottenwieser in Berlin between 1932 and 1934: "A note in the provenance section of the card file in the NGA curatorial records office suggests that the panel passed from Vaz Dias to the dealer Bottenwieser in Berlin, but it has not been possible to verify this."
