

The Art of Creation

An Interdisciplinary Conference

Tuesday 5 September,
The National Gallery at King's College London

10.00–10.30

Arrivals

10.30–10.45

Welcome

10.45–11.30

Panel A

Art At Creation's Extinction: Ecological Theologies in Ruysch's Flowers in a Vase and Regan O'Callaghan's St Paul and the Huia
– Steve Taylor

'God Saw All That He Had Made and Found it Very Good' – Melissa Raphael

11.30–12.00

Coffee

12.00–12.45

Panel B

Letting Creation Speak: A Theology of Resonance and the Ecological Art of Vincent van Gogh – Wes Vander Lugt

Nouvelle Theologie, Van Gogh, and Artist Practice – Anna Yearwood

12.45–13.45

Break

13.45–14.45

Reflections on St Francis of Assisi – Dr Joost Joustra, as Howard and Roberta Ahmanson Associate Curator of Art and Religion and one of the curators of the exhibition

14.45–15.00

Break

15–15.45

Panel C

'We Are Water Spirits': An Ecofeminist Theological Response to Monet's Floodwaters in Conversation with South African Poetry
– Ninnaku Oberholzer

Job 38:1-33 and the Art of Creation
– Revd Jonathan Evens

15.45–16.00

Thanks/Conclusions

16.00

Departures

THE NATIONAL GALLERY

KING'S College
LONDON

This conference originates from the Art and Religion Research at the National Gallery, and is generously supported by Howard and Roberta Ahmanson.